About Our School

In partnership with our parents and the community, we provide a comprehensive educational program designed to support student academic success, career awareness, and knowledge of self. We accept our students as they are and welcome the challenge of moving them forward to meet and exceed rigorous standards in all academic disciplines while empowering them to articulate their expectations through the creation of goals based on data and personal experiences. Our parents support our uniform policy, extended day programs, Saturday programs, college visits, and other extracurricular activities, and also enjoy the sense of community and strong communication that exists among all constituents of the school community. Moreover, we are dedicated to providing high quality instruction in a nurturing, educationally diverse, and rich learning venue that promotes civic and cultural responsibility, pride, and high academic achievement. Our commitment to providing a dynamic and demanding learning experience serves to prepare our students for the challenges of living in a competitive and rapidly changing world as responsible adults.
