About Our School

Our mission is to work with families to prepare each student academically, emotionally, intellectually, and socially to succeed in a college of her/his choice and beyond. Our school provides each student with the academic foundation necessary to continue their education and participate effectively in our democratic society. We offer a small environment where teachers care about students and expect the best of them. Parents appreciate the school's communication with families, our teacher accessibility and accountability, and the high levels of academic expectations, performance, and progress. Our school, which is one of the highest rated schools in NYC, has been highlighted and featured in various media, including NBC's Today Show, ABC News' World News Tonight, and the New York Times.
