About Our School

Students value that South Bronx Academy for Applied Media (SBAAM) provides many learning opportunities to prepare them for higher education, careers, and life. SBAAM provides a small, nurturing, and disciplined environment in which adults and children are meaningfully engaged in learning. Parents/guardians appreciate our emphasis on the success of the whole child, including students' academic and social development. Parents are given the opportunity to collaborate with staff to plan a variety of special events and activities for the benefit of our students. We also provide a variety of after-school programs.
