About Our School

P.S. / I.S. 377 provides every child with the opportunity to fall in love with learning. We aim to stimulate their curious minds by engaging them in a positive course of study that holds to performance standards. Students are taught to take responsibility for their own learning. Through the collaborative effort of the parents, teachers, and staff, our students will be enriched with the academic and social skills needed to become active and productive members of society.
